

I have been listening to KLOVE radio for numerous years. We have a difficult time subjecting our children to the language, behavior and sexual innuendos that are prevalent on local mainstream radio. We believe that KLOVE enhances the local community by broadcasting a positive message from a global perspective. It also provides info about positive local activities that are not announced on mainstream radio. This provides encouragement to locals in a positive manner.